2012 BDK FELLOWSHIP

It is with great pleasure that BDK JAPAN announces “the 22nd BUKKYŌ DENDŌ KYŌKAI Fellowship - 2012 BDK Fellowship.” The scholarship aims at the promotion of international cooperation and mutual understanding in Buddhist studies and is intended to enable researchers to engage in research on Buddhism while in Japan.

Who is Eligible?

Researchers of any nationality except Japanese, under 40 years of age, preferably advanced graduate students working toward a Ph. D. degree, are invited to apply for this fellowship. The successful candidates are expected to engage in the academic study of Buddhism, being affiliated with a Japanese university or research institute while in Japan. Fluency in Japanese is not essential to obtain the fellowship.

Application Procedure

An application form will be sent upon request. Or an applicant may download it online. Three reference letters with the confidential reports are mandatory. These should include one from the applicant's instructors. Other reference sources can be attached along with application, but they are up to 10 pages in typed only. The application form for the 2012 program and other required documents must reach the BDK office by January 8, 2012. The candidates will be informed of the selection results by BDK Fellowship Committee via mail at the end of February 2012. The scholarship tenure will be one year that may begin at any time after April 1, 2012 and before March 31, 2013.

Fellowship Award

The award consists of the following: One round trip economy class air ticket to Japan (for an applicant already residing in Japan, a one-way return ticket); monthly scholarship payments of ¥250,000 (for a single awardee) or ¥300,000 (for an awardee with his/her accompanying family); expenses for research travel and book-purchase (¥40,000 each, one time only); and a health insurance premium (up to ¥30,000 yen per person). Please inquire about support for dependents prior to your arrival, which will be considered in special cases.

Requests for application and inquiries concerning 2012 BDK Fellowship should be addressed to BDK Fellowship Committee.
